GUIDELINES FOR FLAME UNIVERSITY'S ONLINE UNDERGRADUATE ADMISSION PROCESS

Dear applicants,

Greetings from FLAME University.

FLAME University's admission process is conducted completely online. You will be able to attend the admission process from your home.

As a part of your online admission process, you are required to complete the FLAME Entrance Aptitude Test [FEAT] (if you do not have SAT or ACT scores), Essay, and Online Personal Interview.

- Essay: During the online admission process, you will be required to complete an essay, the topic of which will be provided on the spot. You are required to type your answer to the essay question in ~200-250 words. You will be given 20 minutes for the on-the-spot Essay. Once you complete the Essay, you will be able to proceed with the FEAT.
- FLAME Entrance Aptitude Test (FEAT): is an online examination (multiple choice questions) divided into 4 sections Verbal Ability, Reasoning Ability, Quantitative Ability, and General Knowledge. The total duration of the FEAT shall be 120 minutes. For applicants who have submitted their SAT/ACT scores, only Essay will be conducted (FEAT is optional for them).
- 3. Online Personal Interview: This part of the admission process will also be conducted online after you complete the FLAME Entrance Aptitude Test (FEAT) and the Essay. The Panel for the Online Personal interview will consist of two faculty members. Possible questions may include your reasons for applying to FLAME, your passions, role model, learning, and aspirations. Your responses will help the university know more about you, your personality, communication skills, and clarity of thought. It is meant to allow you to express what may not be stated in your application.

Below you will find a complete step-by-step guide of the online admission process. This has been designed to ease your navigation through the online assessment on the day of your admission process. We highly recommend you review the guide before your scheduled FLAME University admission process day. For any questions, please write to us at admission@flame.edu.in.

We wish you the very best.

Sincerely, FLAME University Admissions Committee

Note: You are required to carry your AADHAR card or PAN card, or Passport. This will serve as identity proof for you to attend FLAME University's online admission process. Only originals shall be treated as valid proof of identity. You are required to keep the same handy during the entire online admission process. Please ensure that you start the online admission process at your scheduled time.

STEPS BEFORE YOU BEGIN YOUR ONLINE ADMISSION PROCESS – CHECK SYSTEM COMPATIBILITY

A few days prior to your scheduled admission process day, you will receive an invite from FLAME University, Pune (If not found, please check the SPAM folder). It will include:

- a) Link to check your system compatibility and to start your admission process: We recommend to check your system compatibility before your scheduled admission process day. In the event that you are not able to do so, you can check the system compatibility on your scheduled admission process day as well. It does not take more than a few minutes. Kindly note, that the time taken to check your system compatibility is not counted towards the duration of your admission process.
- b) Link to take the sample test: This is provided for you to get acquainted with the test platform, so as to easily naviagate through the actual test.
- c) Link 'Start Test': This link will allow you to take the final test, only on the day when your test is scheduled.
