ABOUT THE FLAME INVESTMENT LAB

FLAME was founded with the concept of interdisciplinary education as its cornerstone. FLAME celebrates ideas, cherishes diversity, and strives to deliver an academic experience that fosters intellectual curiosity, a critical thought process, self-reflection, leadership and teamwork skills, a sense of commitment and professionalism and a heightened sensitivity to one's sociocultural environment. FLAME aims to provide an interdisciplinary platform of education by propagating different models and paradigms through, but not limited to, history, philosophy, political sciences, psychology, business, economics, mathematics and finance.

As part of its endeavor to constantly redefine education, FLAME inducted the FLAME Investment Lab (FIL), an initiative that strives to deliver the concepts and decipher the art of value investing to interested students. FIL believes in the dictum "invest in yourself". It provides tools for self-learning and acquiring knowledge, constantly striving for intellectual stimulation and asking questions. FIL strives to widen your horizons, aiding you to connect the dots within seemingly disparate information. FIL truly believes that the best investment is investing in yourself. As Socrates has said, "I cannot teach anybody anything. I can only make them think."

After successfully hosting multiple FLAME Investment Lab programs, we are excited to announce the 'FLAME Investment Lab – Equity Analysis for Beginners' program with Jatin Khemani, from July 10 - July 13, 2025.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

SPEAKER

JATIN KHEMANI, CFA

Jatin Khemani is the Managing Partner and CIO at Stalwart Investment Advisors LLP, a SEBI-registered Portfolio Management Services (PMS) and Equity Research firm based out of New Delhi. Jatin has over fourteen years of experience in investment analysis and portfolio management. Prior to founding Stalwart Advisors in 2014, Jatin was working with a Delhi-based family office as the head of research.

He is a CFA (US) charterholder, has earned an MBA in Finance from Christ University, Bangalore, and holds a bachelor's degree in commerce from Delhi University. Having attended multiple programs, he has been an active alumnus of FLAME Investment Lab since 2015 and also hosts the Indian Investing Conclave, a pioneer in online investing conferences.

As a way of giving back to society, he has been an active volunteer with The Art of Living since 2006, where he has led multiple state-level fundraising campaigns to support ongoing projects and for the upliftment of the underprivileged.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

FIL has this entry-level program that will introduce participants to a step-by-step practical guide to equity investing. It will be jargon-free with lots of examples, illustrations and past case studies showing the company's actual accounts and financial journey. An attempt is being made to make it simple to understand and relatable, even for a home maker or a student who is relatively new to the world of equity analysis.

The program would start with understanding the need to invest one's savings along with various investment avenues available in India and thereafter move to equity analysis. There will be dedicated sessions for basics of accounting, financial ratios, business analysis, screening businesses, management analysis and valuation methodologies.

Disclaimer: Case studies on specific companies are created purely for educational purpose only.

PROGRAM OUTLINE

- Why Invest? The common investment avenues in India - Pros and Cons.
- Common pitfalls and shortcuts due to which amateurs lose money in the stock market.
- Thinking like an owner - Starting and scaling up a business.
- Making sense of Financial Statements (Balance Sheet, Profit and Loss and Cash Flow).
- Understanding the language of business (Accounting) along with key financial ratios.
- Three Pillars of Investing: Business (Horse), Management (Jockey) and Valuation (Odds).
- Different types of business models, their strengths and weaknesses.
- Industry analysis followed by company analysis and its key drivers.
- Screening - Quick hack to filter out 90% of fragile/shady stocks.
- Annual Report Analysis - Key Sections. Classroom exercise followed by discussion.
- Corporate Governance - Judging if the promoter/management is ethical as well as competent.
- Valuing a stock to assess if it is under-valued, reasonable, or over-valued.
- Various online resources to compile as well as analyze data.
- Portfolio Approach - Concentration vs Diversification, Position Sizing (Allocation), When to Sell?
- Summing it up. Investment Checklist.
- Further Reading Material - Book Recommendations, Blogs, Web Portals and Other Resources.
- Guest Sessions

WHO SHOULD APPLY?

- Candidates who are exploring a career in investment management are encouraged to attend.
- Senior professionals or entrepreneurs, who wish to get more involved in their personal finance and eventually be better equipped to manage/supervise their investment portfolios are also welcome to apply.
- The sessions would stretch all day starting early morning and going on till late night with periodic breaks. It would be mandatory for the selected candidates to read certain study material before coming to campus, the same would be provided post selection. Only serious candidates who are willing to make effort to learn, contribute to peer learning and sit through all the sessions should apply.
- Having some basic knowledge of business, accounts and equity research would be helpful but the same is not a pre-requisite to attend the program.
- If you are already working as a research analyst or have been managing your investments full-time with relevant education background like CA, CFA or MBA (Finance), the course may not add much value given it is for beginners and will cover only the basics.

WHAT NOT TO EXPECT?

The focus of the program would be solely on fundamental analysis. The instructor has no expertise/experience in technical analysis, quantitative, algo or intra-day trading etc. hence these would not be covered at all. There would be no tips or investment recommendations.

SELECTION CRITERIA

- Candidates who are exploring a career in investment management are encouraged to attend.
- Senior professionals or entrepreneurs, who wish to get more involved in their personal finance and eventually be better equipped to manage/supervise their investment portfolios are also welcome.
- Each applicant will be evaluated on several criteria to ensure that the participants selected for the program are well-rounded individuals with capacities of contributing to classroom participation and peer learning.

All applicants to note the following:

- Admission to the program is not subject to early submission of application form.
- Corporate nominations will be restricted to not more than three nominees so as to ensure a fair distribution of the cohort.
- FLAME reserves the right for selecting participant to this program.
- Selection decisions will take into account the responses submitted in the application form.

OTHER INSTRUCTIONS

- Since this is a case-study based approach and there could be some classroom exercises, it would be recommended to bring your own laptop.
- Please note that active participation of applicants is a must, since case studies will be covered. You will be required to sit and study cases in class, post which there will be discussions on the same.
- There may also be a couple of guest sessions by market practitioners.
